And painted her sitting there,

I hid all trace of her heart unclean; I painted a babe at her breast;

I painted her as she might If the worst had been the best.

She laughed at my picture and

Then came, with a knowing nod,

A connoisseur, and I heard him

"Tis Mary, the Mother of God."

However low we get, we yet have God within us; the lost diamond trodden under foot in the mud is still a diamond.
